

AUDITIONS 2023

COMPANY MEMBER & APPRENTICE

Ballet South, BDBA's ballet company, is holding auditions opened to dancers 10 years and older. Typically, younger dancers are accepted into the company as apprentice and promoted to company member once their pointe work becomes stronger. All dancers interested in joining the company must attend an audition class. Please note that there is no need to be already on pointe to join the company. Bring pointe shoes to the audition only if you already take a pointe class.
